

Basic Schedule (for more details, see the Class Schedule)

- 9:00 Troll Opens (follow signs for location and parking)
Traveler's Fare will be available
Armor Inspection
- 9:45 Classes begin
- 10:00 Meridian Maneuvers
- 10:55 Class sessions continue
- 12:00 Lunch and Bardic Competition
- 1:30 Class sessions continue
- 2:40 Class sessions continue
Gaming Tavern Opens (until 4:50)
- 3:50 Final class sessions
- 5:00 Main Hall cleared for Feast set-up
- 6:00 Feast begins (including bardic entertainment)
Revel begins (as soon as Feast concludes)
- 9:00 Event closed
-

Calling all Bards, Performers and Musicians!

Duchess Katrina of Iron Mountain invites anyone with a bardic bent to sign up as part of the entertainment at Feast - and she will serve as MC! This is NOT the bardic competition, more like an indoor bardic circle. Please include on the sign-up sheet (when you check-in) the title of your piece and what type of performance it will be (song, poem, story, music)

Classes Confirmed for Summer Collegia XI (Updated 8-3-15)

A Beginner's Guide to the SCA, Duchess Katrina of Iron Mountain, OL

Beginning Recorder Playing, Lady Merewen FitzAlan (limit: 6 students, $5 fee)

The Care and Feeding of SCA Newcomers, Lord Timothy of Bennington

Drawing a Heraldic Device for Submission, Lady Fiora Valori

From Board to Shield: step-by-step, Lady Rosemary de Wytleney

Getting Started on Illumination: Nickel Flowers & Vines, Lady Merewen FitzAlan (limit: 6 students; no fee)

Hand-Finish Your Garb: Buttonholes, Eyelets and Neck-Facings, Baroness Katerina filia Jehan de Londres

Introduction to Chainmaille, Lord Dagan macFinguin (Limit: 6 students, $10 fee)

Intermediate Chainmaille, Lord Dagan macFinguin (Limit: 6 students, $10 fee)

Introduction to Heavy Combat: Foundation and First Steps, Lord Gunnarr inn Hviti

Introduction to Tabula (medieval game), The Honorable Lord Brian mac Griogair mhic Eoin

Life in Gaelic Ireland, Baron Charles O'Connor

Make a Graph-Paper Pattern to Fit Your Measurements, Baroness Katerina filia Jehan de Londres

Make Anything With a Rectangle: Garb Patterns for the Complete Novice, The Honorable Lady Dianora di Cellini

Make History Your Own - Creating Persona Anecdotes from (obscure) Historical Facts, Baron Kazimir Petrovich Pomeshanov

Making the Most of Your Bardic Presentation, Duchess Katrina of Iron Mountain, OL

Meridian Army Maneuvers, Sir Geoffrey MacDomhuill, OL

An Overview of Ancient Russian History, Lord Francois de Champagne

Period Materials and How to Make Garb on a Budget, Baroness Katerina filia Jehan de Londres

Planning Your First SCA Feast, The Honorable Lady Dianora di Cellini

Simple & Fun Medieval European Dances, Lady Rosamond Playfayre (additional dance classes may be scheduled)

Unisex Elizabethan Shirts, Maestra Isabella de Boyce, OP

Veggies in the SCA: Tips and Tricks for Feeding Yourself and Your Vegetarian/Vegan Friends, Baroness Caitlin Sommerfield

Viking Wire Weaving, Myfanwy Feret (limit of 5 students, $5 fee, 90-minute class)

You Just Became Herald for Your Shire -- Now What? Meistres Bronwen o Gydweli, OP & Lady Rosamond Playfayre

Activities Confirmed for Summer Collegia XI (Updated 8-1-15)

NOTE: Fighter activities are outdoors; all others are indoors.

Fighter Activities

Armor Inspection starts at 9 a.m.; if you arrive late, we will inspect your armor as time allows.

Meridian Army Maneuvers, Sir Geoffrey MacDomhuill, OL (morning)

Rapier Scenarios, The Honorable Lord Brian mac Griogair mhic Eoin (morning. We will hold pick-up bouts in the afternoon if requested)

NOTE: There will be NO Heavy Fighting after lunch due to hot weather conditions

Bardic Performance Competition

Sing, recite a poem or tell a tale - single performers only, no groups. Use an actual medieval or early Renaissance text (no documentation required) or a more modern source. Your presentation must evoke the feeling of the Middle Ages (avoid obtrusively modern content or style). Judged by Duchess Katrina of Iron Mountain and Master Geoffrey MacDomhuill, both members of the Order of the Laurel. (during lunch break)

Bardic competitors: You are strongly encouraged to attend Making the Most of Your Bardic Presentation (10 a.m.). After class, work on your entry with Duchess Katrina as time allows. (11 a.m. - noon)

Heraldic Consulting Table

Want to check if your name or device follows period/SCA style so you can submit it for registration? Are you a newcomer needing help in coming up with your SCA name? Meistres Bronwen o Gydweli and Lady Fiora Valori have the books and the expertise to help you out. Consulting is free; if you want to submit your name today, make out the check to Kingdom of Meridies / SCA, Inc.: $7 for Society members; $12 for non-members. (2 hours in afternoon)

Cock and Feather Gaming Tavern

Ready to have fun? Master Geoffrey MacDomhuill, KSCA presents his gaming tavern for your amusement - period game boards and pieces are ready, "coin" is provided, friendly gambling is encouraged, prizes are won! (afternoon).

Vendors

Lord David The Scott (books, feast gear, selected garb & sundry other items)

Mayaa Noor, Mehndi Designs (Henna hand painting)